

Resolution V.

The Circle of Presidents of the Conference of European Constitutional Courts, gathered in Prague in preparation of the XVIIIth Congress of the Conference of European Constitutional Courts on June 13, 2018, unanimously decides to accept the proposal of the Supreme Court of the Principality of Monaco to change the Conference Regulations of the Conference of European Constitutional Courts.

New provision of Art. 10 par. 1 and 2 of the Conference Regulations with effect from June 13, 2018 reads:

„¹ The written invitation to the meeting of the “Circle of Presidents” must be accompanied by the draft agenda for the meeting.

² The agenda is adopted at the beginning of the meeting; it mentions the individual topics which will be discussed (see Encl.).“

The other provisions of the Conference Regulations remain unchanged.

Prague, 13 June 2018

Pavel Rychetský
President of the Constitutional Court of the Czech Republic
